

The Daily Union Vedette.
MONDAY MORNING, OCT. 3, 1861

John Mitchell.

We have often asked, will John Mitchell be punished as he deserves? A refugee from Ireland on account of his devotion to liberty, he became the advocate of slavery in this country, and was among the first to lift his hand against the Government that had afforded him a refuge when he was hunted down like a slave. As editor of a Richmond paper, he was most violent in his abuse of the Government of the United States, defended and applauded the atrocities practised upon our defenceless soldiers in southern prisons, and was continually crying for more blood.

His position gave him the opportunity of doing great harm, and he made the most of it. He repaid the hospitality of our country by the basest ingratitude and his punishment should be the reward due the meanest of traitors.

There is one feature of his case that cannot be overlooked. Coming from Richmond reeking with the blood of Union soldiers, for, as above intimated, he was one of the most guilty instigators of the cruelty practised upon Union prisoners, he was welcomed into the office of that violent copperhead organ, the New York News. He began his work by an immediate attack on the loyal papers of the city and incendios against Union men and soldiers who had whipped him out of Richmond.

Yet so base had been the course of that paper before, that its readers did not notice any change by the addition of a rebel editor to its corps.

The thing would hold true of the Cincinnati Enquirer Chicago Tribune, and all the papers which have been whining against the Government.

GUILTY hands Cowards of us all. A most truthful expression by the vacuous editor of the Daily Sun. The acknowledgement of his guilty conscience should escape so voluntarily from his own mouth. Well may he endeavor to cover the idea of "cowardice" as applicable to others; as a guilty soul is never content with its goings at home.

"Crackers will continue to be mastigated, notwithstanding, there are some who are too hard to be cracked by the Telegraph Grinder."

Rare on, gentle S—, but in our vocabulary, there is no definition to be found which can more truthfully answer to "Guilt," than a perfused polygamist.

BY PACIFIC TELEGRAPH.

[SPECIAL TO THE DAILY UNION VEDETTE.]

DRUGS. New York, Oct. 4. The Herald's Vera Cruz correspondent of the 21st of Sept., says, a terrible state of affairs exists in Mexico; disorder and violence reign supreme; guerrillas increase in numbers and their depredations continue in all sections.

Some 1600 additional French troops have lately arrived, and a number of negro troops are expected from Egypt, and it is feared they will bring the cholera with them and inflict new misery on the country.

The Persia arrived last night with dates of the 24th. Nothing new regarding the French. Another petty officer was arrested in the Cork garrison, but it is believed the troops as a body are perfectly reliable. The Dublin detectives are at work in Edgland and had arrested two Fenians in Manchester and one in Liverpool; all were sent to Dublin. Terror organizations in Liverpool are reported to continue active notwithstanding the arrests in Dublin. The Evening Mail says, the evidence is so voluminous that the examination of the prisoners could not take place on the 23d.

All was quiet throughout Ireland at the latest dates. Gunboats continue to quire of Cork, looking out for a vessel reported to have cleared from America, with arms and munitions of war. The Times editorially holds up the movement of troops as a policy absurd and distasteful to the public, but says, "it is something to have it clearly shown that the American Government rejects all participation, which Irishmen fondly expected. The Army and Navy Gazette does not believe in the troops being infested with Fenianism, and says they are stationed in strictly military principalities in the event of rising, and the number of 2600 men, besides 10,000 armed police, could be summoned at an hour's notice."

NEW ORLEANS, Oct. 3d.

The democratic convention have organized and adopted a platform.

The resolutions emphatically approve president Johnson's reorganization policy, exclude from the field, politics, sectional controversies, and hold that this government is to be populated for the exclusive political benefit of the white race; it recommends the calling of a convention to adopt a constitution expressive of the will of the people, and ask congress for compensation for the losses sustained by the emancipation policy, advocates a repeal of the laws in conflict with the constitution and laws of the general government, and earnestly appeals for a general amnesty, prompt restoration of property, and the like, without distinction of nationality, to join in the opposition to the radical republican party.

New Orleans, Oct. 3d. Gwynn and Clark have gone up the river under a guard boat for Washington.

It is advised that large quantities of land have been purchased by the Polish agents, to introduce a colony of Polish emigrants. The first party is expected in December.

The Mississippi election returns show the certain election of Gen. Humphreys as governor by a large majority. The democratic convention has adjourned sine die; it nominated J. M. Wells for Governor and A. P. Forbush for Lieutenant Governor.

Raleigh, N. C., Oct. 3d. The State Convention organized yesterday. Hon. E. G. Reed was unanimously elected President. A full attendance of delegates and the utmost harmony prevailed. Nothing important done to day.

Philadelphia, Penn., Oct. 4. The loss by fire at French and Richards' drug warehouse last night, is estimated at from $250,000 to $300,000, insured for about $175,000.

It is established beyond a doubt that in the convention with distinguished Illinoisans a few days since, Gen. Grant declared that the government would vindicate the Monroe doctrine at an early date, and that Maximilian must leave Mexico. It will be, he says, less expensive to rid Mexico of the enemy than to guard our borders against him, and it's his opinion it will require no call for troops, but with the present army he can spare enough to give efficiency to the forces in Mexico.

News from the interior of Turkey is very discouraging; it would appear that 100,000 refugees who fled from the cholera in Constantinople, had carried the disease with them into the provinces, and it is now not only in the seaports, but in the interior, and that the ravages of the epidemic had commenced.

New York, Oct. 3.

UNPREDICTABLE OUTCOME.—As we go to press, the arrival of Louis McLane, Esq., Supt. of the Pioneer Line of Stages, and J. J. Tracy, of O. M. Co. fame, is announced. They were only THREE DAYS AND TWENTY HOURS ARRIVED FROM San Francisco to Salt Lake City. If that kind of staging don't beat anything ever reported, we are mistaken. They headed in the San Francisco Bulletin of Wednesday evening, Oct 4th.

The Denver News of September 28th, announces the arrival of a detachment of thirty men of the 7th Michigan Cavalry, who are to relieve the Provost Guard in Denver City. A detachment of forty men of Companies A and B, 3d Infantry, C. V., have been on duty as Provost Guard in that city, for some six months. They are now relieved and will return to Camp Douglas with their Companies under command of Lieut. Col. John. We're glad to hear it; want to see our comrades again.

A special to the Herald from Washington the 6th, says, the activity and demand for public lands continues, with remarkable interest, throughout all the west, and reports from local land agents, and general offices of the business, transacted during the month of September, indicate the extent of the sales at the office at Boonville, Mo., at twenty-eight thousand acres of government lands, which are taken up and actually settled upon, at cash prices, which amounted during the same month to nearly thirty thousand dollars. At Fort Dodge, Iowa, nearly 5,000 acres are reported as entered and settled up, and at Minot, Wisc., two thousand dollars from cash sales are reported.

New York, Oct. 7.—The Tribune's Washington special says, this military department is abolished by order of Secretary of War.

The Herald's Washington special says, Gen. Howard entertains four or five hundred soldiers and guests with a miscellany of addresses at the Union League room, to-night. A telegram will be read by proxy, from Gen. Butler, who was expected to be present, giving a few pecuniary views upon reconstruction. He favors the confederation of all the Southern lands traveled over by our armies, and colonizing them with discharged soldiers, anticipating that the first call for help from the South would be from slave holders, rather than freedmen, intimating that in such a case, Massachusetts will not be among the most active States in furnishing assistance.

Contracts for six important Mail Routes in Southern Arkansas and Louisiana, were awarded today.

Hezekiah Kimball says: "If any brother or sister wants to know the way to Heaven, go and see brother Brigham—the Prophet of the Lord." Had supposed the "Saints" knew all about that route already, without inquiring of any agent in "council" with the Almighty.

Two of the Messrs. Crookshank, brothers of E. Crookshank, of Omaha, the "chief man" of the Pacific Telegraph Line, in operation for the past few years between the Missouri and Salt Lake, arrived here recently, on business chiefly connected with the improvement of their line. It is understood they will remain here a week.

For the State, passengers waited to Denver and the Missouri river, by Frank & Steele's team of 25 mule teams, that leave here to-morrow or next day for the State via Denver. DISTINGUISHED ARRIVALS.—By to-day's and yesterday's Overland Mail coaches, from the west, were expected to arrive Louis McLane, Esq., Superintendent of Wells, Fargo & Co.'s Express and of the Pioneer Stage Line. Tracy, Esq., Treasurer of the Overland Mail Company, who has been out west in Silverland for several weeks past.

John J. Ashley is expected here to-day, en route homeward, after a glorious tour through the territories, and Pacific City.

ARMED.—John Kremer, alias "Dutch John," and one Edward Froegham, were arrested, Friday evening last, on a charge of being interested in brigandage, and the deuce alone knows what all. One of 'em confessed some few things in their long catalogues of crime. The Dutch John didn't, so far as heard from. Their examination to-day will ventilate the matter. Anxious inquiries were made about one Buckner, Friday night, who was stolen from a party here and sold to another party almost next door, was what's the matter.

My Country's Flag.
I love my country well,
Bright banner of the free;
Though traitors call it a rag,
She is the emblem of the true.
Then to the breeze this banner flings—
Long live it o'er the land.

My Country's Flag.
I love its stripes of red and white;
It holds of varied hue.
To us this flag our fathers gave,
For it we've won a nation's fame.
Long may it wave its noblest wave.
Our hope, our trust, our pride.

And when paraded by traitors' hands,
How quickly rallied Freedom's bands
And bore it through the strife,
But now the bloody strife is o'er,
This "Banner of the Free"
In triumph waves from shore to shore.
